

Faith leaders build the foundation for spiritual and educational journeys.

Places of worship provide the foundation for spiritual development; much like early childhood education provides the foundation for all future learning. These cornerstone experiences impact a person’s orientation to the world and their ability to succeed. Faith leaders can ensure that more children are ready for Kindergarten and on a path to lifelong success - both spiritually and academically.

How do you envision your role as a supporter of young children?

